

DJ Immortal

Bio

DJ Immortal, aka Paul Tellimerg, is an electronic music producer known for his groove-heavy sound that blends Detroit techno, trip-hop, new wave, and dub influences. Influenced by the Parisian and Berlin rave scenes, he draws inspiration from the intersection of various disciplines, including experimental video production, science fiction, and physical sciences.

As a member of Claclaclac, a collective known for underground raves in the outskirts of Paris, DJ Immortal blends his passion for unconventional experiences into his artistry.

In 2023, DJ Immortal began translating his studio productions into dynamic live performances, taking his sound global with appearances in cities like Berlin, Paris, Barcelona, New York City, Ljubljana, and Brussels. His performances showcase a precise approach to sampling and analog synthesis, creating emotional and impactful experiences for the dancefloor!
